Greetings From Our President

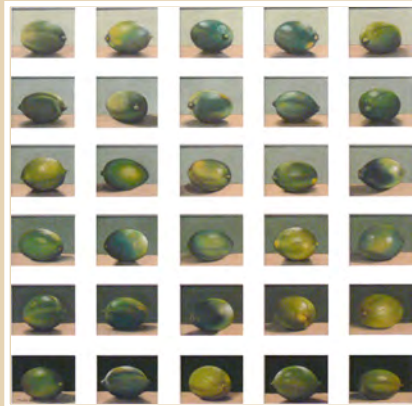

Renaissance in Pastel is a highly anticipated national exhibition, showcasing inspiring work of artists from Connecticut and many other parts of the country. This year we also welcome accepted artists from Canada, China, Israel, Germany and Russia. We offer our congratulations to all whose work is included in this beautiful show.

Special thanks to the Jurors of Selection, Laurinda O'Connor, Susan Ellis, and Karen Tighe, and the Judge of Awards Susan M. Story.

We are especially grateful to Vicki Rooney, Mira Vitarello, and Jean Watson, Show co-chairs, whose hard work and dedication to the Connecticut Pastel Society makes this show possible. We would also like to thank Stacy Mayou for this beautiful catalog, as well as our Awards co-chairs, Mary Ann D'Ambruoso and Pat Boes.

And to you, our online visitors, welcome! Enjoy the show!

Jane Penfield, CPS President

Judge's Statement

It was an honor and privilege to be the Judge Of Awards for the 2020 Renaissance In Pastel Exhibition. This was truly an unusual year since I had to select the awards based only on the digital images given to me. I missed the visual impact of walking into the gallery and seeing the work for the first time, however I did have the luxury to spend more time with each of the pieces and to appreciate their uniqueness. The diversity in subject, style and technique of the work exemplified the beauty and range of the pastel medium. I regret that there wasn't an award for every painting. Acceptance into this outstanding show is in itself a great achievement. Congratulations to all the artists!

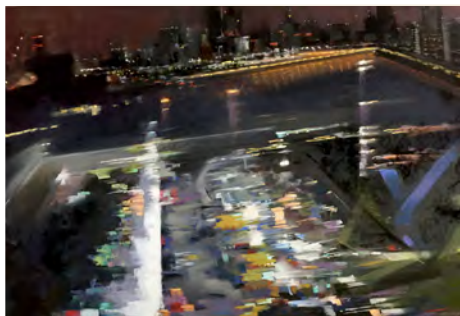

– Susan M Story, PSA-MP
